ZL Technologies to Attend Data Protection World Forum in London

ZL Tech CEO will deliver speaking session on managing personal data in file shares

MILPITAS, Calif., Nov. 13, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ZL Technologies, Inc. (ZL), a leader in information governance, today announced its participation at the Data Protection World Forum in London, England, November 20-21. Data Protection World Forum brings together thought leaders across information management, privacy, risk and security to present on data challenges faced by today's organizations.

ZL's involvement will include an exhibit on the expo floor at booth #43 and a presentation by ZL CEO Kon Leong on managing personal data in file shares. The details of Leong's presentation are as follows:

Time: Tuesday, November 20, 2:55 – 3:25PM GMT

Location: GDPR Refresh Theater, ExCeL London

Title: Privacy in Public: Managing Personal Data in File Shares

Description: Recent privacy regulations such as GDPR now require managing sensitive information contained in file servers, which must be scoured for personal data and managed appropriately through tagging, access privileges, use controls, and lifecycle management. In this session, discover how to control personal data and ensure privacy through global governance policies acting on repositories across the enterprise.

Data Protection World Forum takes place at ExCeL London, an exhibitions and international convention center.
