ZL Technologies To Appear At IAPP Global Privacy Summit

CEO Kon Leong Will Speak on File Shares and Privacy Regulations

MILPITAS, Calif., April 30, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- ZL Technologies, Inc. (ZL), a leader in information governance, today announced its sponsorship of the 2019 IAPP Global Privacy Summit, May 2-3. The Summit takes place at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center in Washington, DC and brings together thousands of privacy professionals to learn about and discuss the latest privacy challenges and solutions.

ZL's involvement includes an exhibit on the expo floor at booth #220 and a presentation by ZL CEO Kon Leong about how to effectively clean up file shares to better comply with current and future privacy regulations. The details of Leong's presentation are as follows:

Title: How to Clean Up File Shares and Manage for Privacy Regulations

Time: Thursday, May 2, 1:05-1:25pm

Location: Little Big Stage

Description: Apart from the ever-present need to clean up file shares, there is now some urgency due to recent privacy regulations such as GDPR which require identifying and managing private information through tagging, access privileges, use controls, and lifecycle management. In this session, learn how to clean up file shares while ensuring privacy through global governance policies on data scattered across the enterprise.

As privacy becomes an increasingly critical component of both government and business agendas, it also becomes dramatically more complex. At the IAPP Global Privacy Summit, professionals gather to look at the big picture of privacy in 2019 and bring home information and lessons that they can use within their organizations. ZL, on the vanguard of privacy compliance, will provide thought leadership that companies can use to thrive in a challenging privacy environment.
